Writ Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India

Present : None for the petitioner.
Shri Sumesh Bajaj, Government Advocate for the State.

Oral Order

(Passed on 27th August, 2007)

The following oral order of the Court was passed by Hon'ble Jagdish Bhalla, Ag. C.J.

None appears for the petitioner; however, we have heard learned Government Advocate and perused the writ petition.

Learned Government Advocate states that one of the tender conditions was to submit income tax return. It is admitted case of the parties that the petitioner had not submitted his income tax return and therefore, the petitioner was not qualified to be considered to participate in the tender process.

In the light of the above, no interference is warranted under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed.
